In Glenfield, turn east onto Greig Road. Go across the Black River and in approximately 1.9 miles the road will make a T-connection with Pine Grove Road. Turn left. The Otter Creek Horse Trails are a series of interlocking horse trails comprising about 65 miles. They are located on both the Independence River Wild Forest Unit of the Adirondack Forest Preserve and on the Independence River and Otter Creek State Forests on the western border of the Adirondack Park in Lewis County.

The trail system uses a series of old, sandy roads and woods trails to traverse a beautiful diverse area with the trails winding their way along spirea flats and wooded areas, accessing picturesque Adirondack ponds and following or crossing Otter, Little Otter, Beaver Meadow, Chase, Burnt and Crooked Creeks and the Independence River.

There is an Assembly Area, (Map) which is located in the Independence River State Forest. The Department portion of the camping permit shall be placed in the provided drop box. The camping party's portion of the camping permit shall be displayed on the dashboard of the vehicle identified on the camping permit at all times. The form can be downloaded from this page ahead of time, but cannot be fully completed until arrival at the Assembly Area to determine site availability. This is not a reservation!

The water is turned on in mid-May and turned off after Columbus Day every year. Port-a-johns are also on-site for use during the summer season. You have to bring your own horse care utensils, and what you bring in, you take out.

Accessible Features

Otter Creek Horse Trail system features accessible bathroom facilities and mounting platforms at the Assembly Area. In addition there are 3 accessible mounting platforms at scenic overlooks to allow users to dismount and enjoy the view.
